

CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE POLICY

The Company must comply with continuous disclosure requirements arising from legislation and the ASX Listing Rules.

The general rule, in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.1, is that once the Company becomes aware of any information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of value or the Company's securities, the Company must immediately disclose that information to the ASX.

The Company has in place written policies on information disclosure and relevant procedures for the preparation, verification and release of announcements and periodic corporate reports.

The focus of these policies and procedures is on continuous disclosure compliance providing clear, concise and effective disclosure and improving access to information for investors.

The Managing Director, Chief Executive Officer and the Company Secretary have been appointed as the Company's disclosure officers responsible for implementing and administering this policy. The disclosure officers are responsible for all communication with ASX and ASIC and for making decisions on what should be disclosed publicly under this policy.

In the absence of the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer or Company Secretary, any matters regarding disclosure issues are to be referred to the Chairman.

Price sensitive information is publicly released through ASX before it is disclosed to shareholders and market participants. Distribution of other information to shareholders and market participants is also managed through disclosure to the ASX and/or on through the Company's website (www.eqnx.com.au). The importance of safeguarding the confidentiality of corporate information to avoid premature disclosure is paramount.

Information is posted on the Company's website after the ASX confirms an announcement has been released, with the aim of making the information readily accessible to the widest audience.

As a guiding principle, the Company has a "no comment" policy on market speculation and rumours, which must be observed by all employees. However, if the ASX considers that there is, or is likely to be, a false market in the Company's securities and asks the Company to give the ASX information to correct or prevent a false market, the Company will give that information to the ASX. All announcements (and media releases) must be:

- (a) prepared in compliance with ASX Listing Rules continuous disclosure requirements;
- (b) factual and not omit material information; and
- (c) expressed in a clear and objective manner to allow investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions.

The Company's protocol in relation to the review and release of ASX announcements (and media releases) is as follows:

- (a) All key announcements at the discretion of the Managing Director are to be circulated to and reviewed by all members of the Board.
- (b) All members of the Board are required to seek to provide their Managing Director (or in his/her absence, the Company Secretary) with verbal or written contribution of each key announcement, prior to its release.

Policies

Continuous Disclosure Policy

- (c) Where the urgency of the subject matter precludes reference to the full Board, an announcement within this category may be approved by the Directors who are available. It is specifically acknowledged that where a continuous disclosure obligation arises, disclosure cannot be delayed to accommodate the availability of Board members.
- (d) Any relevant parties named in the announcement should also be given the opportunity to review the announcement prior to its release, to confirm all information is factually correct.
- (e) All members of the Board will receive copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.

Information is posted on the Company's website after the ASX confirms an announcement has been made, with the aim of making the information readily accessible to the widest audience.

The Company Secretary is to maintain a copy of all announcements released.

The Company holds briefing sessions with analysts, investors and media groups. Only authorised Company spokespersons may conduct such sessions and all sessions will be conducted in accordance with the Company's continuous disclosure obligations.

Any new and substantive investor or analyst presentation will be released on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation. Where practicable, the Company will consider providing shareholders the opportunity to participate in such presentations.

The Company will not disclose price sensitive information in any meeting with an investor or analyst before formally disclosing it to the market. The Company considers that one-on-one discussions and meetings with investors and analysts are an important part of pro-active investor relations. However, the Company will only discuss previously disclosed information in such meetings.

All employees must ensure that they comply with the Company's Code of Conduct and any other policies in respect of media contact and public comment.

The Board will monitor the content, effectiveness and implementation of this Policy on a regular basis. Any updates or improvements identified will be addressed as soon as possible.
